

Promoting diversity and multiculturalism

Scholarship Application

Allied Cultures provides scholarships to deserving students in the United States who hold a passion for multiculturalism that mirrors our own. Students obtaining degrees in higher education are eligible to apply for our $500 scholarship.

Applicants must provide a 1-2 paged, double spaced essay* along with their application that focuses on ONE of the three topics as noted below.

1. How has diversity impacted your life? What lessons have you learned from the multicultural fabric of America?
2. What do you wish to achieve with your degree and major and how do you plan to make a difference in today's diverse world?
3. What can the educational system of America do to further enhance education for people from all walks of life?
